Lawyer,
Member of Parliament 1977-90,
Cabinet Minister

My years at TH&VS were difficult yet rewarding. From academic efforts, to social interaction, to group participation and finally, a degree of maturity and intellectual discipline. An awkward, shy, non-participant with wise coaching and support became a confident young man with the academic tools to succeed.

My many pitfalls and shortcomings notwithstanding, the likes of Miss Anderson, Miss Wilson, Mr. McNamara, Mr. Boissoneault, and Mrs. Jury constantly pushed me onwards and upwards.
I will never forget them!
