

The Quill, 1996-97

From the Desk of Darin Yanisiew, Editor of the 1996-1997 Yearbook:

“Leaving an Impression is a term that comes to mind when one thinks of the wonderful year we had at Timmins High. Like every year, the students of Timmins High leave behind their impressions of the year, which is reflected in the yearbook. I would like to leave behind my impression of the most memorable year of my life. Many people don't realize how many people are required to produce an excellent yearbook. This year there were 27 willing people in yearbook class, all of whom contributed their ideas. I must thank Mr. Adams, the Yearbook advisor, for his leadership and help in producing this wonderful yearbook.....

Being editor of the yearbook is a job for a selected few. It is a hard job that requires a lot of dedication and determination, not to mention time. I want to say that being Editor this year has been the best year of my life!”

Left: Darin Yanisiew, Editor
Right; Inside cover of Quill 1996-97 showing an aerial view of Timmins High.
Below: The 1996-97 Yearbook
staff and Mr. Steve Adams, teacher & advisor. Photograph by Claude J. Gagnon, supporter and advisor for many Timmins High yearbooks.

Note: This TH yearbook set a new standard in graphic design
using digital technology.

